Dear Joan and Members of the Toronto Elementary Catholic Teachers,

Firstly, let me say thank you for your letter of September 10, 1998 addressed to Joseph Martino, Chair of Board of Trustees at the Toronto Catholic District School Board. Your sentiments increases our sense of solidarity and strength. We are all grateful and heartened by this important public statement of your support.

Secondly, thank you for your generous gift of "healthy" goodies. It was important for us to know you were thinking about us and wishing us well in our negotiations. As well, it was wonderful to have a nourishing alternative to the carbohydrate frenzy which accompanies these frenetic times of stress and change.

Sincerely,

Steve Kirby
